

Students For Liberty is a rapidly growing network of pro-liberty students from all over the world.

We are active in over 110 countries – making us the global leader in youth libertarian activism.

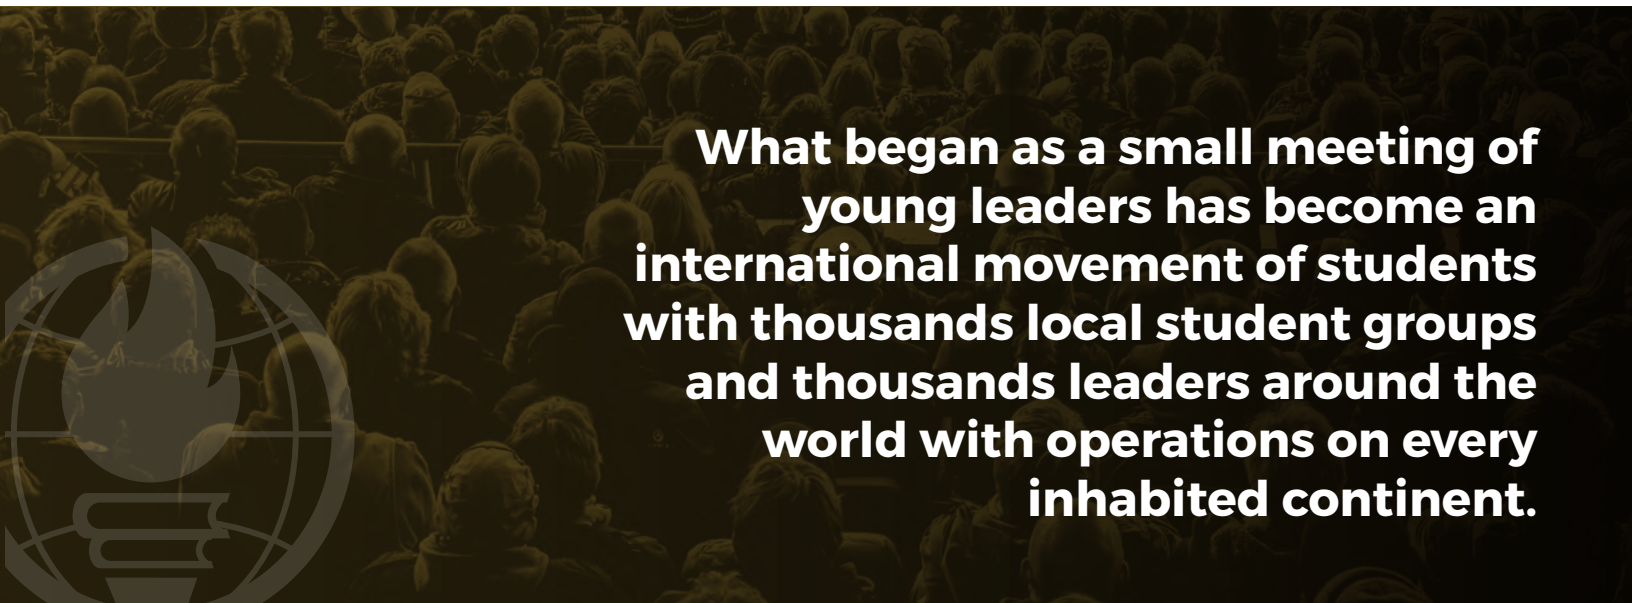

Our mission is to educate, develop, and empower the next generation of leaders of liberty.

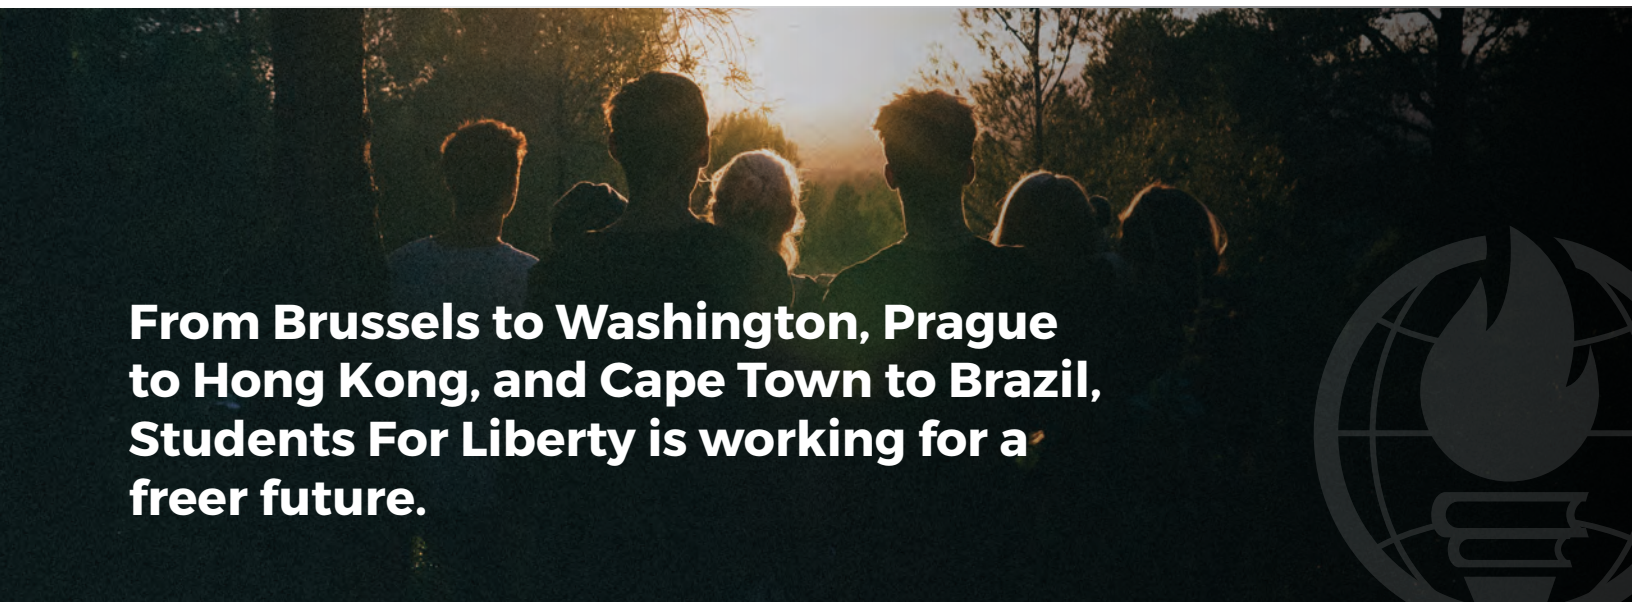

A photograph of students in a classroom, seen from behind, looking at laptops. The image is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the laptop screens.

We are the largest libertarian student organization in the world.

We accomplish this through a strategy of empowerment, identifying the top student leaders, and training them to be agents of change in their communities.

A photograph of a large crowd of students sitting in an auditorium, seen from behind. The image is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the stage lights.

What began as a small meeting of young leaders has become an international movement of students with thousands local student groups and thousands leaders around the world with operations on every inhabited continent.

A photograph of a group of students standing in a line, looking out at a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The image is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the sun.

From Brussels to Washington, Prague to Hong Kong, and Cape Town to Brazil, Students For Liberty is working for a freer future.